In accordance with Article III. of the Constitution of the Church in the Diocese of Missouri, a number of the Clergy and laity assembled this day in Christ Church Cathedral, St. Louis, the place selected by the last Convention.

The first day of the Convention having been selected by the Bishop and Chapter of the Cathedral for the consecration of Christ Church Cathedral, the opening services of the Convention began at 10 o'clock A. M., by a silent procession entering the Cathedral from the choir room, walking down the south aisle in the following order:

At the entrance door of the main aisle the lay members of the Cathedral Chapter met the Bishop, and falling in just behind the choir and before the Bishop, the procession continued up the main aisle, the Bishop repeating the opening Psalm in the service for consecration of a Church, the Clergy repeating the alternate verses. After all were in their places and had knelt for silent devotion, the Senior Warden of the Cathedral read the instrument of donation, or request for the consecration.

After Invocation and Prayers by the Rt. Rev. the Bishop, the Very Rev. the Dean read the Sentence of Consecration, after which the regular morning service was read by Rev. H. L. Foote, of Christ Church, St. Joseph.

After Benediction, the choir and Clergy passed out of the Church during the singing of the Recessional hymn: "The Church's One Foundation."

On reassembling in the Chapel of the Cathedral, the Rt. Rev. the Bishop called the Convention to order, and the Secretary of the last Convention proceeded, under direction of the Bishop, to call the roll of the Clergy canonically resident in the Diocese, and fifty-two Clergymen answered to their names.

The Rt. Rev. President then appointed the Rev. Wm. A. Hatch, Rev. B. F. Newton, and Rev. John W. Birchmore a Committee on Lay Credentials.

But the Committee recommends that the parish be requested to submit their Articles to the Chancellor of the Diocese in order to bring them into more exact conformity with the Canon as it now stands.

ANNUAL ADDRESS

OF THE

BISHOP OF MISSOURI

TO THE

FIFTY-FIRST CONVENTION.

DEAR BRETHREN OF THE CLERGY AND LAITY:

Our thoughts are called back to 1840. It's the time of the campaign for the elder Harrison for President. Seventeen millions make our population,—about a quarter of the present number. Widely spread and deeply felt financial distress has pervaded the whole land for three years. Democratic administrations have been in power for twelve years. The hard times contribute force for hurling them from position and for enthroning the Whigs. It is a remarkable time of fierce political excitement. The Great Western, the first ocean steamer, at least the first where sails were regarded merely as auxiliary, has just arrived from England in the New York harbor. The Stephensons, father and son, have been busy with their improvements; and for about ten years clumsy locomotives lumbering over most primitive railways have astonished on-lookers both abroad and here. Morse is equally busied in perfecting his telegraph; and four years later is flashed from Washington to Baltimore the sublime message, the first over the wonder-working wire, "What hath God wrought." Texas has just wrested its independence from Mexico and is asking for entrance into the Union,—and the request brings on our war with Mexico. In Missouri there are 381,192 people; in St. Louis 16,469. At Columbia on July 4th is laid the corner stone of the State University, and General Minor, still living in our day an honored Churchman of Jefferson City, delivers the address. The Church has 25 Dioceses, 55,000 Communicants, and 1,059 Clergy, and is cared for by 19 Bishops, among them, Griswold, Brownell, Philander Chase, Meade, the two Onderdonks, Ives, Hopkins, Otey, and the elder Doane. And there are two Missionary Bishops, Kemper and Polk. Kemper for five years has been Missionary Bishop of Missouri and Indiana. Polk for two years has been Missionary Bishop of Arkansas. DeLancey has been for one year Bishop of Western New York, New York being as yet the one only Diocese strong enough to divide.

The fifty years have rolled by. Their facts and figures may not move us to any foolish elation. Population has increased, I take it, about four fold. Our Clergy have increased scarcely four fold, being now a few more than 4,000. The Bishops have not increased four fold, being now less than 76. St. Louis has increased twenty-five fold. Two Clergymen and Parishes were here in 1840. There ought then to be fifty Clergymen now, and we have only twenty-five.

In two things, however, the showing is better. Missouri in population has increased about seven fold. She had eight Clergymen in 1840. That would call for 56 Clergymen now. We have 79. And in the whole country, where we estimate the increase four fold, our Communicants, now 486,000, have increased nine fold. In 1840 there was one Communicant of the Church to every 309 of the population. In 1890 there is one to every 139. There is much to thank God for. There is nothing to be proud over.

I may use the same words in reviewing the past year that I am set particularly to speak to you about. We may thank God for all His servants departed this life in His faith and fear. Foremost among them we count the late Bishop of Kansas. Had he lived two months longer he would have been for 25 years a Bishop. He was very desirous of attending the last General Convention in New York. His heart longed to be once more with his brethren in the House of Bishops, where for many sessions he had been a useful and most honored member. But he overestimated his strength, that was weighted with the burden of seventy-seven years; and at Philadelphia death arrested him while he was on the way to us. Bishop Vail was intimately associated with Missouri. He had personal friends throughout the State, and often visited our Diocese to give help. In the interval between the death of Bishop Hawks and the consecration of Bishop Robertson he kindly discharged Episcopal duties here. Memories of him, of his courteous manner and loving heart and faithful help, are most grateful and reverent among us.

I cannot forbear adverting to the death of Bishop Lightfoot, of Durham. Among all whom I met abroad he most won my love and esteem for his profound learning, his unaffected modesty, his kindly heart, and his faithful loyalty to duty. The world of learning mourns his loss. The Church militant and all who personally knew him realize the sad removal of one eminently unselfish of heart, beneficent in life, untiring in search for truth. If Joseph Butler be the greatest in the long line of the Bishops of Durham, it will be everywhere demanded that Joseph Lightfoot be ranked right near to him for the second.

Two of our Clergy have died. Rev. L. N. Freeman, in Kalamazoo, Michigan, Jan. 27, 1890. Of him I know nothing personally. I find that in 1870 he was minister at Pleasant Hill and Warrensburgh. Rev. Thomas R. Valliant, at Platte City, Feb. 26, 1890. Mr. Valliant came, a deacon, into the Diocese in 1879. Throughout these eleven years he remained a deacon, winning by daily toil, as the editor and proprietor of a newspaper, support for himself and family; and at the same time doing diligent Missionary work for the Church at Liberty and Platte City and Weston. I esteemed him highly and loved him as a brother. Simple, straightforward, unblamable, unselfish, devoted, pure, faithful,—all these he was. He was preparing for Priest's orders, and to give up his whole life to the Pastorate, which he loved. His death is a great loss to the Diocese. God be thanked for his good example.

The death of Mr. Henry Shaw has removed from St. Louis the presence of a strongly marked character. His munificence has contributed and will for ages contribute to ennoble and beautify our city; and his benefactions by gift and bequest to the Orphans' Home and to St. Luke's Hospital are most gratefully remembered. Mr. Arthur Kempland had been for many years before his death a faithful member and Warden of Grace Church, St. Louis, and will be much missed. Mr. Benjamin Orrick lived to be ninety, a true and devoted Churchman to the last. He died at Lee's Summit and was buried only a few days since at St. Charles. Mrs. Vallè of the Church of the Holy Communion, St. Louis, and Miss Hill of Blackburn were types of the meek spirit and refined womanhood that Christianity implants and the Prayer Book culture fosters. Mrs. Aglar, of St. George's, St. Louis, was a faithful servant of the Lord and a most cheery promoter of all Parish activities. We thank God for the life and help of His workers. We pray for His grace that we may take up and go on with their work.

And I am thankful for money given. I am well aware that money for the Church and in the Church is not everything. Rich possessions for either the Church or the individual, without a godly spirit and a dutiful life, are of little good. Yet giving of money may be an index of the kind of spirit we are of. We can't eat money, nor clothe ourselves in the money of gold or silver or currency or cheques. Yet it is the measure of value and brings the wherewithal for us to be clothed and fed. So money is not prayer food nor the vesture of grace and holiness for the spiritual life. Yet it may be of most beneficent help in furnishing Sacraments and Sanctuaries, Services and nutriment, Ministers and Missionaries for that spiritual life. And in a money loving age the amount willingly paid out by people for religious institutions may be taken as a fair test declaring the value set upon the things of the spiritual life.

Listen then to some of the sums of money given and be glad. Missions first. I would be basely neglectful of the rock whence I was hewn and the hole of the pit whence I was digged if I did not put Missions first. For Foreign and Domestic Missions, $2,007.48, against $1,742.03 of the year before. For Diocesan Missions, inclusive of St. Stephen's, and the Missionary Host, and Sister Eliza's work, $7,500. For Hoffman Hall, in Nashville, Tennessee, the Seminary for training young Colored Ministers, $250. Near $10,000 in all, besides the Parish Missions, as St. Andrew's and the Church House that the Church of the Holy Communion, St. Louis, supports; St. Andrew's Mission, under St. Mark's, Kansas City; the Missions supported respectively by St. Mary's, and Grace, Kansas City; St. Mark's, under Christ Church, St. Joseph, and a Mission at Hunnewell that St. Jude's, Monroe, is looking after. Then, money for Hospitals, two gifts of $5,000 each having been made to St. Luke's, besides a bequest of $5,000 from Mrs. Virginia Smith, and $500 for the Mercy Cot. Then, money for paying off Church debts. St. George's, St. Louis, $5,000, clearing its Guild House. Sedalia, $5,000. Grace, St. Louis, $1,800. Trinity, St. Louis, $5,000; clearing all floating and annoying debt. For the Woman's Auxiliary, cash, $1,000. For the Bishop's Purse, $4,000. I have used round numbers, but here is already a casting up of $47,000. Four Churches have been Consecrated and therefore entirely paid for, besides the crowning service of to-day in the Consecration of Christ Church Cathedral: Holy Communion and St. John's, St. Louis; St. Luke's, Rich Hill; and St. Paul's, Lee's Summit. Other new Churches have been built; St. Mark's, Kansas City; and at Carthage, Clinton, and Bevier. At Old Orchard, Emmanuel Church has been ceiled and a new $1,700 organ has been purchased and paid for. Grace, Kansas City, has erected a new and beautiful Guild Hall. The Churches at Cameron and Independence have been refitted and improved. Beautiful Eagle Lecterns have been placed in the Cathedral, in Mount Calvary, and in the Church of the Ascension, St. Louis. A most beautiful marble Altar from an unknown has been given to St. John's, St. Louis. It's the story of a splendid advance all along the line. And it is in the air, ay, and almost under contract, that a Rectory is to be secured at Jefferson City; and one at Nevada; that a new Church is to be built for Holy Trinity, St. Joseph; and one at Holden; that the Church at Columbia is to be enlarged, as is also Holy Innocents', St. Louis; that a noble organ is to be placed in Christ Church Cathedral; and that Ferguson and Benton, both owning suitable lots, are soon to put up Church buildings. I have not minutely nor accurately recounted all there is to tell; but if my contention is sound, that money given is a most suggestive test of the vigor of spiritual life, enough has been told to lead us to "thank God and take courage."

Nor have I exhausted the good things set for the Convention Feast. Here are some side dishes. The Missionary Host, grown so big that the Cathedral can not contain it, and necessarily swarming forth hereafter into Exposition Hall, and sturdily gathering its littles of giving till $1,000 per year are placed in the Bishop's hands for Missions; the Church News with near 2,000 subscribers and appropriating a surplus of over $200 for Diocesan Missions; St. Andrew's Brotherhood, marshalling and disciplining and inspiring the young men for service as never before; the Orphans' Home, renewed, improved, invigorated for its blessed work; St. Luke's Hospital, taking on the Annex of a School for training nurses, the fourteen learners in that School doing admirable duty in its wards; St. James' Military Academy, Macon, under its eminently fit Rector caring for thirty-five boarders instead of the twenty-five of last year, and winning for itself honor and success every day; the School of the Good Shepherd' under the Sisters, in its beautiful home and with School rooms and dormitories filled full; and the List of the Clergy, showing 79 in all, of whom 63 are actively working against 57 of last year;—these are not things, I am sure, to impart to the offered spread a cold or sour or unpalatable flavor.

Yet, there is nothing to be proud over. With worldliness so rampant and wickedness so strong it is unfit, every one may see, for the Lord's hosts to display exultation. With half our Counties in Missouri having never a Clergyman or service of the Prayer Book in them, it is not for us as Churchmen to shout, Hosanna.

Suffer me the mention of some special things that seem humilitating. There are 99 organized Parishes and Mission Parishes in the Diocese, 55 of the former and 44 of the latter. Of these, 35, during the last year, so far as my examination of the acknowledgments in the "Spirit of Missions" testifies, have not given anything to either Domestic or Foreign Missions. I do not understand how a loyal Parish, or a loyal Churchman or Churchwoman can go a year without painstakingly calling themselves each one to account and gladly giving as the Lord blesses them, and because the Lord asks them, something towards carrying out his great Missionary Commandment,—"Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature." In 1835 our Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society was formed, and Bishop Kemper sent forth under its auspicies,—the first Missionary Bishop. The law of its Constituency was this:—Every baptized member of the Church is a member of it. Every Churchman, therefore, it seems to me, ought to feel bound, and to be glad, not only to support the home ministrations of his Parish and Diocese, but to give something every year to our own constituted and authorized Society for Domestic and Foreign Missions. I am sad to know that 35 Parishes and Missions of the Diocese have given nothing. And to find among them Parishes of such spirit and strength as these: Carrollton; De Soto; St. Mark's, Kansas City; Maryville; Moberly; Pleasant Hill; Advent, Grace, Mt. Calvary, St. James', and St. Augustine's, St. Louis; Bevier; Clinton; Ferguson; Rich Hill; and Savannah.

There are 82 Church buildings in the Diocese. Of these 17 are in debt. This is bad. I am glad to say, and proud for the country to say, that only four there are burdened with debt. I am not proud of the large cities to know that 13 of the 17 are in them.

In the Diocese are 17 Rectories. Only 17 Rectories to 82 Churches! Yet a Rectory is the best sort of endowment of a Parish, and the strongest pledge for its stability. Can we not have more of them?

All Saints' is our Colored Church in St. Louis and under a Pastor who is one of the most devoted and self-denying men that I know. He has gathered a large congregation. But it is repressed and chilled by a heavy debt of $9,000 resting upon the Church building. My heart has carried grief every year of my Missouri life because of this debt. With a Committee consisting of Messrs. Frank Carter, John M. Gilkeson and D. E. Garrison, I have tried to diminish it. We accomplished little or nothing. Now the ladies have taken the matter in hand. I am glad. They'll not give up as we did.

St. Luke's Hospital is still in debt $15,000. Doing steadily its blessed beneficent work, and doing it in a most satisfactory way, as you may find out if you will inquire, is it not a sorrowful story that year after year must go by with this debt hanging upon its energies?

This year, 793 were confirmed. There are in the Diocese 8,406 Communicants. I esteem the computation of the late Bishop Smith, of Kentucky, to be for America quite a correct one; viz., that in a healthy condition of Church life and activity in a Diocese the number confirmed annually should be one-tenth of the number of Communicants. I am aware that a large Confirmation class is not the one only test of a successful Pastorate. And that a large class corralled rather than shepherded may mean harm more than good. And I would urge prudence, care, instruction, guidance, discrimination, prayer, upon every Rector when preparing his class. Yet, with the time of probation steadily passing and the hour of death rapidly closing in upon us all, I ask my brethren of the Clergy, are we all awake to our duty in requesting persons to be confirmed?

Do we, with the earnestness that we ought, urge the men of good character that are in our congregations, and the boys who are in Christian homes, to do their duty and avail themselves of their privilege in coming within the inner circle of grace that is provided in Confirmation? Some of the best of people, most fit and worthy, are humble and self-distrustful. They will not speak first and come to you to ask to be confirmed. You should go to them and ask them to be confirmed. Figures, I know, are not everything, any more than money. But if they tell us the story that, in the Diocese, those confirmed are falling below one in ten of the Communicants, I do not think we ought to rest content. Recounting these things, it seems as if some bitter herbs are mingled in with our pleasant side dishes, doesn't it?

The Report of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese will be read for you. Of it I am proud. It has given $50 for Diocesan Missions. And $25 for Foreign Missions. And $250 to Bishop Thomas for Kansas. And two or three hundred dollars to visiting Bishops. And more gifts here and there. And two Scholarships of $200 each to the School of the Good Shepherd that do precious Missionary work; for the beneficiaries on these Scholarships are daughters of Missionaries nominated by the Bishop. This is a most delightful help to me and to the Missionary cause. Now the Auxiliary is turning its attention to All Saints' Church, St. Louis. The Parish Representatives, under the leadership of Mrs. W. H. Thomson, are asking subscriptions of fifty cents per month, or six dollars per year, and they have begun the gathering of these many littles. Their aim is to pay off $1,000 per year of that debt of $9,000. They want 200 subscribers. I do hope they will get them. I beg all whom my voice can reach or my pleading can influence to help the good women in this work. Nothing will be more gratifying to your Bishop than to have this plan successfully pushed through.

In the new order of things soon to come upon us, it is not reasonable to expect from the Diocesan Missionary Board the continuance of the appropriation of $2,500 per year for Diocesan Missionary. Yet, I frankly say I am exceedingly desirous to retain the help of a Diocesan Missionary. Exigencies arise in a country Parish where the presence on the ground of one in authority makes for a happy solution of a pending difficulty. The Bishop, tied to his line of appointments, cannot go. The Diocesan Missionary goes, and untold good is done. Then in the necessary records to be made (and they are no small work), and the daily correspondence, he is of unspeakable value to the Bishop. I venture therefore to prefer my request that, if it seem right and well for the Convention to do so, it will instruct its Missionary Board to set apart $600 per year for a Diocesan Missionary. I would not pass on without my word of loving thanks, for his kind and unremitting faithfulness, to him who has most acceptably filled the office this year, and who has been to me a brother, and almost always by my side, for twenty-five years.

I beg to renew a recommendation that I made in my last address; viz.,—that Canon XX. be altered so as to appoint the Special Annual Collection for the support of Theological Students for the "third Sunday in Advent or one of the Sundays nearest thereto." And that a fourth Special Annual Collection be added; viz.,—for St. Luke's Hospital upon "Thanksgiving Day or the Sunday nearest thereto." The Theological Educational Fund of the Diocese is an important fund. Sixteen young men of our own are now preparing for the Sacred Ministry. If they are to get the educational training they ought to have, and that will make for best benefit to the Church, many of them must be helped, as West Point cadets are helped. To secure the larger amount needed, and to give all an opportunity to contribute, the Sunday will be better than the week day. Besides, the Collect and Epistle for the third Sunday in Advent are particularly suitable, as they call attention to the Ministry. Then, what better time can be set apart for offerings throughout the Diocese for St. Luke's Hospital than Thanksgiving Day? The advantages of the Hospital are open to all from the country as well as the city. We know that many from the country avail themselves of these advantages. And all the Clergy of the Diocese are ex-officio members of the Hospital Association. So it seems most fit to appoint a day for a Special Collection for its succor, and to indicate the day of Thanksgiving as the best time for almsgiving for the relief of suffering and sorrow.

I ask leave to renew another recommendation; viz.,—that the fiscal year in each Parish shall be made a definite twelvemonth. Not from Easter to Easter. But, from some fixed day and date to the same fixed day of the next year. I do not take it that action by the Convention need be invoked upon this recommendation. It is entirely competent for each Parish to act for itself. To decide for itself that its year shall be an exact twelvemonth. Easter to Easter is not an exact twelvemonth, and computations on that basis beget perplexities and confusions. I suggest, after giving considerable thought to the subject, that the best year to fasten upon is that from Dec. 1 to Dec. 1. Advent is the Church's New Year. Dec. 1 is, or is right near to, the first Sunday in Advent. On January 1st other settlements clamor for adjustment. To have made the Church Settlements of the Parish a month earlier will be a good thing well done. And Eastertide with its happy outburst of unselfish joy need not be clouded as now with a crisis of unhappy pecuniary perplexities.

The change from Easter to Dec. 1 for Settlement day would be, I dare think, in the right line for calling down God's blessing. Easter comes straight after Lent. It should be the crown and fruit of the self-denial of Lent, the self-sacrifice of Lent, the unselfishness of Lent. Yet, in some Parishes Easter after Easter, what spectacle is presented? This, that the offerings on that day go to pay up the Rector's salary, or to make up deficiency in the current Parish income. That is to practice self-denial throughout Lent, and then to pour the savings of that self-denial into one's own selfish Parochial pocket at Easter. How unchurchly! How unchristian! How most unfit a transaction to ask God's blessing upon! O, I would say if you cannot pay ordinary Parish expenses by Parish income gotten at other times and in other ways than by Lenten savings and Easter gifts, then cut down your expenses. Get into a wholesome way of Parochial housekeeping. But do not, I beg, travesty Lenten self-denial and prostitute Easter generosity by turning the results into your own expense account pockets. I beseech my brethren of the Clergy to touch the conscience of the people by showing to them the enormity of this offence. All the unselfishness that a long Lent preaches is washed out of sight by the flood of selfishness that such Easter giving practices. And, my dear brethren all, Clergy and Laity, whether in your home Parishes you fix your fiscal year from Dec. 1 to Dec. 1, or from January to January, or from April to April, or from May to May, at any rate go not on, I appeal to you, with this pernicious habit of Easter offerings for making up neglected current Parish income. My heart would leap for joy if all Easter offerings in Church in the Diocese should be made for Missions. For twenty years I have been accustomed to that practice of generous unselfishness. Then Lenten savings may be thrice blessed. They go out and forth and far away, and God's approving smile upon the giver and the gift can almost be felt. I would not object to Easter offerings for an organ; or for some Church improvement in lot or building or furniture; or for some benevolent work appealing; or even for some large Church debt, pressing and paining. But offerings for delinquencies in Rector's salary or in the income side of current expense account, things that are merely the bone and framework of decent honest, selfish, Parish business life, what a perversion they work of the very idea of Lenten unselfishness and Easter generosity!

Out of the experience of Pastorships held by me once and again, I venture to suggest one thing more to my brethren of the Clergy. Preach Anniversary Sermons. If your Parish year end Dec. 1, immediately after preach your Yearly Sermon. In it tell the people of your baptisms and your burials; of the money given through the year and for what; of advances, where they have advanced, of faults and failures where criticism and admonition are needed, and give thanks for the former and guidances for the latter;—and take my word for it, that Yearly Sermon, with its facts and its hopes, its thanks and its plaints, its simplicity and straightforwardness, will do more to wake up your Parish and inspirit your people than the best Theological monograph that cost you days and weeks to think out. If every Clergyman, every year, would preach such Annual Sermon, I know from experience that great good would result.

The American Church Building Commission is a beneficent institution. It loans to Churches at six per cent. In helping to build Rectories as well as Churches several of our Parishes are its beneficiaries. It would make me happy to know that a yearly offering is sent to it. Missouri is proud of the fact that a Churchman of her own gave into its treasury $60,000, the largest gift it has ever received. Last year collections amounting to $128.46 were sent from us.

The Clergy Pension Fund, incorporated in New Jersey with the Rev. Mr. Holcombe for Financial Secretary, at 346 West 55th street, New York City, aims to alleviate the pains and penalties that old age incontinently brings upon Clergymen. I have looked into the plans and workings of the Society. I heartily approve it. It does not do or promise everything. But it does exactly this:—Its initiation fee is $10. Its dues $1 per month. Any Clergyman at any age and in any state of health may become a member. At 60 years of age and after, if he has been a member five years, he draws an annuity. This money is his as a fixed pension, not as a charity. The amount depends upon the Treasury and its income and is pro-rated according to the payments for membership that have been sent in by the annuitant. All these features I think good. I have been a member myself many years. I advise all the Clergy to become members I am glad to say that two ladies of the Diocese are regularly paying to me the dues of two of our Missionaries. I think in time, as it is seen that the Society is permanent and trustworthy, and confidence in it has been fully won, gifts from laymen, and bequests and legacies, will be directed into its Treasury.

I return my thanks for the kindness of approval manifested on all sides upon the perfected change of Christ Church, St. Louis, into the Cathedral. It is my earnest desire that you may all feel that it is your Cathedral; that from all over the Diocese you have your right and part and lot in its worship and life and work. It is yours to help and to be helped by. I am sure I speak for the whole Chapter governing its affairs when I say that we want to make it all we can a home for the whole Diocese, its Bishop and people and children and Parishes. For practical support it is obliged to wear more or less the vesture of Parochial life, but it hopes and means to keep free from aught that shall cloud for an instant its proud claim and happy consciousness that, as in the past historically, so for the future heartily and lovingly, it is the mother Church for all of you. Its endowment now, through acts of generosity that warm my heart to think of, is $53,000. I do not change my view that it needs not less than $100,000. And it ought to have at least one added Assistant Minister at once. May God the Holy Spirit put it into hearts and wills to help us to anchor and strengthen and enlarge the prodigious work the Cathedral has upon its hands.

Missions I began with. With Missions let me end. St. Stephen's Mission, of this City, under its diligent and unwearied Pastor, has completed a year of the steadiest sort of work. It is still housed in two old stores. I am very anxious to erect a building in which shall be a Chapel and other rooms for its benevolent agencies. For this purpose $15,000 are needed. I am crying aloud for pledges towards this amount through the Church News; no payment to be required till the whole sum is pledged. And I am praying the Lord to move hearts towards the pledging. We have reached nearly $5,000. What a comfort and blessing if the other $10,000 may come before next winter sets in! At present, under a resolution of the Diocesan Board of Missions, St. Stephen's is cared for by the Board, but money is appropriated to it only out of gifts specially made for it. I would ask whether, in the new relations in which we are soon to act, it would not be wise and well that St. Stephen's should be placed, like any other Mission, under the Board, and be paid out of its General Treasury. Twelve hundred dollars per year will be needed for it; but if the City Parishes will increase their pledges for Diocesan Missions, making them large enough to cover the amount of what they formerly gave both for Diocesan Missions and St. Stephen's, this appropriation could be met, and Bishop and Rectors would be relieved of the necessity of special and pressing solicitation for the support of an isolated Mission. If the Convention think such a course would be wise and well, I suggest that it should instruct its Diocesan Board of Missions to place St. Stephen's on its list of regular Missions, and pay its stipend out of the General Treasury. Such step, I think, will be in the direction of unity and harmony and efficiency. If my suggestions be approved and acted upon, of $1,200 for St. Stephen's, and $600 for a Diocesan Missionary, then pledges will need to be given for $4,875 for Diocesan Missions for this next year, to keep up the work now doing. I am earnestly anxious that by your generous pledging on Wednesday afternoon you will show with emphasis by voice and deed that there is a heroic spirit abroad determined not to let the old Diocese, even though cleaved in twain, to take any steps backward or even to relax her strong and glorious grasp upon the precious Diocesan Missionary work.

Besides such purely Mission activity of St. Stephen's among the poor and neglected, I heartily wish St. Louis were doing more in the way of Church extension. St. Mark's Memorial we are proud of. Cabanne has done nobly. The Church of the Holy Communion in its outshoot of St. Andrew's is doing well. But where else, while tens of thousands are adding to our population, is another Church or Parish being added? Between St. Mark's and Cabanne there ought to be another Parish and another Church centre started to-morrow. Who will guide towards it, and help do it, and do it?

The morning services and all this address have been telling of the past. But, whatever the ears hear, hearts cannot help noting what is near upon us in the future. We who have been brothers in Council for years and who are the Representatives of such counselling Brothers of fifty years are soon to go apart. Not because we differ in view. Not because we are divided in heart. Not because there is the slightest wish of ourselves to sunder fraternal and loving ties. But because it is duty to the Church, and best for the Master's work. The eagle stirreth up her nest, and the eaglets are pushed out; and they, roused and uncomfortable, are amazed over the fit of hard-heartedness that has seized upon the mother. But the wise bird knows what she is about and her pecks and thrusts are to make them realize that the time has come for them to do their own flying. The old Diocese is not hard hearted. She is running over with a warmth of mother love to-day. But the very responsibility of her motherhood obliges her to see, and, seeing, to act wisely to bring it about, that such a centre as Kansas City and such a region as West Missouri are growing too old and strong to be deprived longer of self-reliance and self-rule.

You that go away go not because you want to. I am sure of that. I know it in my heart. But because the work needs your going. The cause demands it. The clamorous future cries aloud for it. And you would not bring upon your head the prophet's reproach, "Israel is an empty vine; he bringeth forth fruit unto himself." For the Master's sake, and the Church's sake, and the future's sake, you will go and do what you do not want to do.

God's blessing go with you! I may not be forbidden the expression of my deep sadness that I must give you up. My life has been singularly filled with these givings up. Now for the third time as Bishop I part with those I love. You have been brothers, and sons, and servants, and sisters to my help, and your names are in my grateful memory forever. It is with poignant sorrow in my personal heart; but with Spartan pride in my Bishop's heart over your sturdiness, and strength and loyalty that I say, Good-bye.

The total delinquency of $374 20 shown in this report is, I think, the smallest in the history of the Diocese. It certainly is the smallest during the twenty-three years I have had charge of the funds.

The Convention should make provision for the division of these assets if it is contemplated to divide them. The best way would probably be to divide the cash, and let the old and new Dioceses take the delinquent amounts belonging to each. They are about equal sums.

The time has now come when you must relieve your Treasurer, who has labored through three episcopates, and thinks he is now entitled to a rest.

In speaking of this matter to your Bishop, he kindly told me there would not be much chance of my getting off unless I insisted.

I wish now, therefore, to give notice that I positively insist, and again insist.

The time has come when you will require young and active blood.

Thanking the Convention for their uniform kindness in the past, I remain

Respectfully,

JOSEPH FRANKLIN,
Treasurer.

Report of the Board of Trustees of the Parochial Trust Fund of the Diocese of Missouri.

ST. LOUIS, MO., May, 1890.

The Board of Trustees of the Parochial Trust Fund respectfully report that at its first meeting after the last Annual Convention, held September 23, 1889, it organized by electing the Rev. M. Schuyler, D. D., Vice-President and W. B. Potter Secretary and Treasurer.

At this meeting, upon the recommendation of the Bishop, the Board authorized the sale of the lot held in trust for St. Luke's Parish, Odessa, Lafayette County, for the sum of $150, and the proper officers were instructed to execute the deed in favor of Walker E. Ewing and deliver the same to Judge Jos. Smith, of Lexington, Mo., for said Ewing.

May 19, 1890.—A request of the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church of the Holy Trinity, St. Joseph, to encumber their lot in South St. Joseph to the amount of $1,000 for building purposes, was granted, and the proper officers were instructed to execute and deliver to the American Church Building Commission of New York City, a Deed of Trust and five notes dated May 1st, 1890, and payable at one, two, three, four and five years for two hundred dollars each, with interest from date at the rate of six per cent per annum, payable annually.

Since the last Annual Convention, held in May, 1889, the following conveyances of real estate to the Parochial Trust Fund have been received, viz.:

January 2, 1890.—Deed from Smith Ely and wife, for that part of lot No. 1, in block 61, lying east of the east line of Third street in the city of Rich Hill, Bates County, Mo., in trust for St. Luke's Church, Rich Hill.

February 15, 1890.—Quit claim deed from Elizabeth M. Whiting, Belle M. Jones and Bessie M. Gottsell, Trustees, by a conveyance made to them by William B. Howard and Mary C. Howard, for lot 1, in block 22, in the city of Lee's Summit, Jackson County, Mo., in trust for St. Paul's Church, Lee's Summit.

May 5, 1890.—Deed from the Santa Fe Town & Land Co., for lots 22, 23, 24, of block 1, Santa Fe Addition to the town of La Plata, Macon County, Mo.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Board,

WILLIAM B. POTTER,
Secretary.

APPENDIX NO 6.

Report of the Registrar and Librarian.

During the last year the Registrar, chiefly through the Diocesan Secretary, has received Journals of most of the Dioceses, and has exchanged surplus Journals with several. No new bound volumes have been received. Pamphlets and Church periodicals have been offered in quite large numbers. But the small Library room is already so crowded that they have not yet been accepted. It is very desirable, and really necessary for the accommodation and proper arrangement of additional books, pamphlets, historical discourses and manuscripts, that a considerably larger room be secured, or that the present room be enlarged. Your Registrar hopes and anticipates that, under the Cathedral Staff, this improvement will be made.

Our Diocese is not yet entirely alive to the importance of the preservation of Parochial histories. Every Parish should send to the Registrar the history of its beginning, together with its status as a corporation.

The Diocese has the beginning of, and should aim to possess a complete Church Library rich in all the departments of Theological learning, and in all general and local Church history. It should receive and file the most important of our Church papers and periodicals. It should have in permanent keeping one copy each of the Annual Journals of other Dioceses, which, together with the messages of the Bishops usually published in their Journals, especially photograph the living question of the day.

There has been placed in the Registrar's hands the sermon preached at the organization of the first Convention of this Diocese, by the Rev. P. R. Minard, once connected with Christ Church, with Kemper College, and the founder and builder of St. Paul's Church, St. Louis. It is a sermon of peculiar interest, as to the Church's right of Jurisdiction in this new land—and then of her authority to administer.

At an expense of $13.50 the Library room and books have been kept in as good order as possible in its present location.

In view of the now organized Cathedral Staff, and of the fact that the present Registrar lives a long distance from the Library, he recommends that one of the members of the Cathedral be elected as Librarian and Registrar.

Respectfully,

J. P. T. INGRAHAM.

APPENDIX NO. 7 A.

Report of Chaplain—St. Luke's Hospital.

ST. LOUIS MO., May 26, 1890.

The undersigned, acting as Chaplain of St. Luke's Hospital, with the assistance of his good brother, the Rev. Carroll M. Davis, would briefly state what the work has been, and what has been the outcome, so far as man can judge.

On every Tuesday and Friday, at 7 P. M., there is evening prayer with a short lecture, either in the wards or in the hall of the second floor, for the privilege of those who are confined to their beds. This service Mr. Davis has taken and has been frequently assisted by the Rev. G. B. D. Miller. It seems to have been particularly acceptable and highly prized by the patients.

The Chaplain or his assistant are always ready and are frequently called, sometimes in an emergency, to visit the sick in their private rooms or in the ward; and there have been cases of special interest which seem fully to justify the gratuitous service so cheerfully given, but only enforces more emphatically the necessity of a resident Chaplain.

A Sunday afternoon service at 3 o'clock has been held in the Chapel, several of the Clergy in the city officiating. Until of late the Rev. Dr. Gierlow has taken it in the place of his second service at the Church of the Advent, with a special invitation for his own congregation. These services have not been as well attended as they should be, as it is the only place of public worship opened in the afternoon for our Church people in the city.

Of late, the Rev. Mr. West, who is a Candidate for Holy Orders, has had morning service in the Chapel, which has been attended by quite large congregations.

There is always a celebration of the Holy Communion at 11 A. M., on Thursdays, and also on all the Holy Days of the Church. During Lent there were special instructions on Thursday morning on points of doctrine connected with the Holy Com munion.

It gives the undersigned pleasure again to bear testimony to the efficiency and watchful care of Mrs. Chambers, the present head of the Hospital, and her attentive and well-trained corps of nurses. The patients have uniformly testified their grateful appreciation of the wise and loving attention they have received at their hands.

Through the kindness and liberality of Mrs. Lindell, to whom we owe the gift of the Chapel, it has been thoroughly and tastefully painted on the outside and many necessary repairs made during the past year. The receipts from the offertory have more than covered the expenses, such as heating and caring for the Chapel.

It has never sought aid from the Treasurer of the Board.

We are indebted, for the care of the Chapel, the sacred vessels and other incidental calls upon her time, together with the receipts and expenditures of the offerings throughout the year, to Sister Eliza. She deserves our thanks.

M. SCHUYLER,
Chaplain.

Also that the balance of cash in the Treasury belonging to the General Fund be set aside to pay the expenses of this Convention, and the delinquent assessment due from the various parishes be divided, each Diocese taking those within its borders.

Your Committee would further recommend that The Bishop Robertson Memorial Fund be not divided, but be made a Permanent Fund of the present Diocese of Missouri.

We find that the current expenses of the Diocese for the year will be about fifty-five hundred dollars, and would offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That an equitable assessment be made on the several parishes and missions for the sum of $5,500.

The following Missions are reported vacant: Afton, Brunswick, Moberly, Weston, Butler, Cameron, Clinton, Crystal City, Hamilton, Ironton, Joplin, King City, Lamar, La Plata, Liberty, Marshfield, Miami, Odessa, Plattsburg, Shelbina, Sweet Springs, Neosho and Versailles.

Last year the Board took occasion to call the attention of the Convention to the pleasing results of the system of pledges and the advantages obtained by it. Too much praise cannot be given to the system. While there are perhaps some delinquents, yet the promptness with which the pledges are generally paid enables the Board, without delay or detriment to the work, to give the proper assistance to the weak Parishes and struggling Missions.

The surplus of last year has been greatly diminished, and it is hoped that every member of the Convention will have this vividly before him when called upon for pledges for the coming year. True, there has been a decrease, but we find consolation for it in the fact that the number of Missionaries have been greatly increased, as has also been the stipends of many who were most in need.

If this blessed privilege of giving for such a great cause is exercised by all of our Church people in such a liberal and cheerful manner as seems to characterize many, the Board will see its way clear to uphold the hands of the Bishop in extending the Church work, and at the same time to give to those self-sacrificing Missionaries the comforting assurance of at least a respectable support.

The receipts from the Missions receiving assistance indicate to the Board that they feel greatly encouraged by the aid you have given them, and are striving to do their duty. It rests with those of you who are able, to say whether or not this great and good work shall go on with increased zeal. The Board doubts not your ability or your willingness.

Respectfully submitted,

F. J. McMASTER,
Secretary.

Report of Diocesan Missionary.

ST. LOUIS, May 1, 1890.

To the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of Missouri.

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR:—During the year past, under your direction, I have officiated 183 times, celebrated or assisted at the Holy Communion fifty-nine times, and delivered 140 sermons and addresses in fifty-one parishes and missions. In the vacant parishes, I have visited the Church families as far as possible; and have frequently held consultations with Committees and congregations in parish affairs, and in devising ways and means of securing the permanent services of a Pastor. While it is more difficult to see the fruits of a Diocesan Missionary's work than in the direct work of a parish, yet there are evidences that the general result is encouraging, and a distinct advantage to the growth of the Church.

To indicate some special fruits: It may be thought that the mere fact of a Presbyter visiting a vacant parish for two or three services will avail little, yet there are certain emergencies frequently occurring where such a visit has kindled dying embers, which otherwise a little later would become dead ashes, with little possibility of life. A feeble parish or mission gets disheartened, discouraged, perhaps what there is of it twisted into a wrangle, they begin to think they are neglected, the Bishop cannot break his regular appointments to go to them; then the Diocesan Missionary, whom they know to be sent by authority of the Bishop, is enabled to do just the thing needed at the juncture to lift them out of the slough, and tide them over till the Bishop's regular visitation. And then there are instances of villages where a Church Clergyman is seldom or never seen, and where the novelty of a surplice will draw out half the inhabitants, and a few plain lectures illustrating the truths we hold will stimulate uncommon inquiries about the Church and her doctrines. From all I heard of the work of my predecessor on every side, it certainly is no longer an experiment that the Diocesan Missionary is a most valuable supplement to the Bishop.

The Church News has received a generous and hearty welcome from both the clergy and the laity, and through their kind sympathy and assistance the circulation has largely increased; and there is ground for the hope that the desire of the Bishop may be fulfilled of seeing the Church News in every family in the Diocese. I venture to suggest that our Brethren of the Western Diocese may see their way to continue their kind support of the News, and make it one of the bonds of union between the two Dioceses.

G. D. B. MILLER.

APPENDIX NO. 14½.

Report of Missouri Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary.

To the Rt. Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, D. D., Bishop of Missouri, and Members of the Woman's Auxiliary.

The year 1890 will always be written in red letters in the annals of the Missouri Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary. It is not only the best year's work we have ever reported, but the last year that the whole State will work under one organization. Another year there will be two Branches in Missouri, each one stronger for the increase of time and thought that can be given to it.

We have been fortunate at our meetings in having speakers who have roused a deeper interest in Missionary work. At our General Meeting last November, the Assistant Bishop of Minnesota visited us, and a clearer intelligence and readier sympathy for the Red Men have been the result of it; and with the Chicago Branch of the Auxiliary we were glad to undertake the salary for this year of a teacher at White Earth Reservation. At the January meeting the Rev. Calbraith Perry made an appeal for the work among the Colored People. We added what we could to his Missouri scholarship, and then, as a result of this, took up a special line of work for the relief of All Saints' Parish in this city. A scheme has been planned to reduce their heavy debt. We ask subscriptions of 50 cts. a month, or $6 a year, and aim to reduce the debt $1,000 annually. This calls for nearly 200 subscribers; so far we have 90, and we urge this as one of the special lines of work for the coming year. Mrs. W. H. Thompson is Treasurer of the Fund.

During Lent, the privilege was ours of a Quiet Day under the direction of the Bishop of Fond du Lac. That these days are a help in our busy lives, and that many long for that bread which satisfieth, was proved by the throng that filled St. George's Church that day, and the blessing of it only He who readeth our hearts can know.

A year ago, from the Alumnæ of the School of the Good Shepherd the Bishop appointed a committee, consisting of Miss Parker, of Oak Hill; Miss Scott and Miss Annie Carter Wickham, of the Cathedral; Miss Garth, of Hannibal, and our Vice-President, Mrs. Cushing, as Chairwoman, to raise the fund for the Bishop Robertson scholarship. They report the payment of $150, the amount pledged, while the remaining $50 was given by two of our city Parishes. To all who have contributed to this it will be gratifying to learn that the pupil using it, who graduates in June, has already secured a position as teacher in the public school of her own town. And thus we see the direct benefit the Auxiliary has been to the family of one of our Missionaries. Our other scholarship, our $50 pledge for Diocesan Missions, and the $250 which our Bishop asked for the Bishop of Kansas, have all been paid. The Offertory at our Quiet Day, amounting to $100, together with that at the Retreat of the Clergy, which was generously placed in our hands, making $133 in all, was given to Bishop Grafton for Missionary work in his Diocese. We aim, in spite of our decreased force, to keep up our regular pledges for the two scholarships and the $50 for Diocesan Missions. The Mite boxes have again been the source of a large revenue, bringing us in $205 this year.

At a meeting in New York last October, the officers representing forty-seven Branches of the Auxiliary, determined that the furnishing of the Auxiliary Rooms in the new Missions House should be undertaken as joint work of all the Auxiliary Branches. We pledged no specified sum from Missouri, but we would probably have no difficulty in raising $250 this year towards it.

Our work for the year stands as follows:

83 Missionary boxes, valued at	$2,659 45
Cash, as per Treasurer's report	1,414 58
Cash reported but not passed through Treasurer's accounts	1,540 39
Total	$5,614 42

For nine years we have met annually to report our progress and lay future plans. They have been busy years in which heart and hands, strengthened by prayer, have wrought faithfully for the coming of Christ's Kingdom.

It might be well now, to report, not in exultation but in deep humility, lest it may not always have been our best, what the aggregate work of these years has been. In 1881, when the Branch was formed, the dear Mother Church, the Pioneer in all Missionary efforts, was the only Parish working under Woman's Auxiliary. Now we have 32. The first year we raised $866 13, this year $5,614 42. In the nine years we have sent 353 boxes, valued at $14,439 07, and in money $8,027 19, or a total of $22,466 26.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY W. TRIPLETT,

Secretary.

APPENDIX NO. 16.

Report of the Committee on State of the Church.

The Committee on the State of the Church beg leave respectfully to report:

That they find little to do beyond giving voice to the general sentiment of satisfaction, and of devout gratitude to Almighty God that the closing year of the old Diocese should have been full of manifest tokens of Divine favor.

Taking for exhibit the Episcopal address, with its modest record of tireless labor, and its acknowledgment of the returns of labor, together with the Parochial and Missionary Reports sent up by the Clergy, and the Official Reports of the several Treasurers and Trustees of the various funds, it is easily seen that a new record is made exceeding anything in the previous history of the Diocese. It is earnest of more work and better work in the future. Two Dioceses will hereafter stand upon the ground of the old Diocese of Missouri. If it be right to call that division, it is that we may find factors wherewith to multiply.

Your Committee are of opinion that the details of Church work should furnish profitable, if not interesting reading to Church people. A fact is sometimes more eloquent than a poem. The statement of gains and hopes, of successes and failures, is often useful in revelation of methods and appliances. The Clergy should be invited and encouraged to make something more than mere statistical report, and all reports, Parochial and Missionary, should be exhibited in full in the Journal of the Convention. We therefore offer the following resolutions, and recommend their adoption:

Resolved, That the Clergy of the Diocese be requested to append to the usual statistical report a short statement of any matter of interest, general or special, connected with their work.

Resolved, That the Secretary of this Convention be instructed to set out in full, in the proper appendix to the Journal of this House, all Parochial and Missionary Reports, and also to tabulate the same as heretofore.

Respectfully submitted,

CAMERON MANN,
H. L. FOOTE,
GEO. C. HARRIS,
JAMES A. WATERWORTH.

APPENDIX NO. 17.

Report of Committee on Christian Education.

Your Committee on Christian Education would submit the following, as their report:

The importance of Christian education needs no enforcement from this Committee. Every member of the Convention will recognize it as one of the most important spheres of the Church's work. That our Church activity needs large development in this direction must be evident to all. The Church in Missouri is not as yet doing the work that should be done. We trust that the time may come in which she shall be effectively carrying on a work for which our Church has always proved herself to be so well fitted. The Committee would fain be able to report more schools for the Church in this State, but they are glad to report the good condition of such as we have:

CHURCH OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD.

Number of pupils enrolled	97
Boarders	34
Day pupils	63—97

The school is in a prosperous condition, but during this year there will be a heavy drain upon the resources of the school for the purpose of building a wall around the school property, which is necessitated by the grading of the streets. A Chapel also is needed for religious services, in addition to the room which is now fitted up for the purpose.

St. James' Military Academy, of Macon, has had a prosperous and encouraging year, the number of regular boarders having increased from twenty-five to thirty-five. The administration of the present Rector has done much to establish confidence both in the educational standard and in the financial condition of the Academy.

The present Board of Trustees have been exceedingly helpful and efficient, and the prospects for the coming year are bright and promising.

A day school was opened last September at St. Mary's Church, Kansas City, under the title of St. Mary's Classical Institute. The Rector of the Church is Superintendent, the Rev. F. W. Wood, Ph. D., Headmaster, and Mrs. Lillian D. Ash, Teacher. The number of pupils in attendance during the past year has been twenty-two in the regular session and twenty-one at special hours. The Committee hope it will prove a permanent and useful institution in the new Diocese.

St. Mary's Classical Institute was organized in connection with St. Mary's Church, Kansas City, last year. Sessions have been held regularly since September 2, 1889. The faculty consists of Rev. John Sword, Superintendent.

St. Agnes' Hall, Macon, though not organically connected with the Diocese, is a school for girls under the influence of the Church, where good Church teaching is found. It is in a flourishing condition.

Respectfully sumbitted,

G. H. STERLING,
JOHN SWORD,
JOHN DAVIS,
J. BLAIN,
Committee.

APPENDIX NO. 18.

Report of Committee on Sunday Schools.

Your Committee appointed to report on Sunday-School Work, respectfully submit:

We do not take it to be your wish that we should give a report on the state of the Sunday-school in the Diocese; that belongs to another Committee — but we cannot forbear to congratulate the Diocese on her growth in this direction.

The importance of Sunday-school work cannot be exaggerated. The boys and girls of to-day are the men and women of to-morrow. What manner of men and women they shall be is very largely determined by the religious training that they receive in childhood. Unhappily, religious training in the family is almost universally neglected in our Western country. Some substitute must be provided, and by general consent, the Sunday-school is the substitute.

Two questions then confront us, demanding thoughtful consideration — a consideration based on practical and extended observation. In considering this matter, your Committee desires to place before you suggestions that may be valuable and so useful that they will not be buried away with the great mass of literature that sleeps the sleep that knows no wakening, between the covers of the Convention Journals.

The first question is — How shall the numbers in our Sunday-schools be increased?

1. By obtaining for Sunday-school work first-class teachers. Teachers of this order must be earnest Christian and loyal Church members; earnest Christians, else whatever they may teach the children, they cannot train them up in the fear and admonition of the Lord; loyal Churchmen, else the awakened zeal is most apt to be without knowledge and a sound mind.

2. Willing workers. No teacher ought to be accepted in a Sunday-school without the expressed promise that they will be punctual and regular in attendance.

The necessity for these requirements is — that without them, classes cannot be held together or profitably instructed. The usefulness of weekly teachers' meetings for the study of the Lesson is known to those who hold them. No school can be thoroughly worked without them. There the teachers are inspired with deeper religious sentiments; learn the Lessons; compare experiences, adjust difficulties; are incited to look up absent scholars and to go out to find new children. In fact, teachers' meetings bear to the Sunday-school a relation almost important as steam to the engine. Here fire is kindled and energy developed and force continued.

3. Short services and lively singing are important factors in bringing children to the Sunday-school. While some of the Church hymns and her chants may undoubtedly be used with benefit to the school, at the same time, quick, lively airs are very attractive to children. It would seem a wise thing for the Sunday-schools of the Diocese to unite on some Hymnal, or if none such be found, to appoint a Committee to prepare a Hymnal for the use of our Sunday-schools.

These suggestions could not in some missions, stations or parishes be fully carried out; but we think they could be, in many where at first glance it would be thought impracticable.

The next question is — How to lead the children from the Sunday-school into the Church?

1. Through the Bible Class. Every Sunday-school should, if possible, have a Bible class.

2. Through work in the Sunday-school by the children of the school. The formation of Guilds or Bands among the children, in some schools, has made them miniature parishes, where, on a small scale, something like the work of the Vestry and Sewing Societies has been done, and the little ones have by easy gradations passed into the larger work of Church life.

3. Through the formation of a chorus choir to be used in Church services. It may not always be possible or advisable to have the singers uniformed or surpliced (however strong the reasons in its favor may seem), but it is possible to select from the school, generally, a number of voices that will add to the beauty of the service, the fullness of the music to the numbers of the congregation, to the growth of the Church and the larger additions of the Sunday-school to the Church.

These suggestions may seem commonplace, but like the commonplace things of life, we believe they have their value.

B. E. REED, Chairman.

APPENDIX NO. 19 A.

Report of Secretary of Orphans' Home.

EASTER TUESDAY, April 8th, 1890.

The Secretary, in behalf of the Board of Managers, would respectfully present to the Right Reverend Bishop of the Diocese, the Clergy, and the friends and patrons of the institution, the following annual report:

In the retrospect of the year we find much to awaken emotions of congratulation and deep gratitude. Straightened as we have been in the means of supplying the necessary demands of our orphan charges, and obliged to hamper ourselves with petty economies, denying ourselves not only luxuries but comforts, we are at last beginning to see the dawn of a better day.

For years past the Home has been suffering for repairs; but, failing to see our way clear to meet the expense, these repairs have been deferred until, through the general bequests of the last two years, we have been able to accomplish our purpose. Through the means thus supplied and the efforts of the managers in soliciting a "Repair Fund," we are now enabled to announce to our many friends that the exterior as well as the interior of the Home has been painted, and otherwise put in comfortable repair, including granitoid floors in the basement, and a thorough overhauling of the plumbing throughout the building; so that we believe it to be at the present time in perfect sanitary condition.

There is still much that might be done. Especially is there room for improvement in the surroundings, in the lawn in front, and, more than all, in the waste desert of ground at the back. Also the outer buildings are in sad need of repair, or, I might better say, reconstruction.

Grateful for the past, we press forward to the future, trusting to it for means to extend our work and our charity; for we are not willing to stand still. We must go on.

We wish to express our grateful acknowledgments for the bequests of the past year. These bequests consist of five thousand dollars from Mrs. Virginia Smith's estate, and two thousand from the estate of Mr. Henry Shaw, together with property in city block 1984, bequeathed to Mrs. Caroline Morisse, which, at her death will, by the terms of the will, become the property of the Home.

The bequest from the estate of Miss McCreery will not be available to the use of the Home until the distribution of her estate shall be made.

We would also express our warmest thanks to our patrons for their continued assistance; for donations in money, and gifts of provisions and clothing; for the assistance of the Church Guilds in sewing; for the religious services held in the Home by our Chaplain, the Rev. B. E. Reed; for free medical aid accorded by Dr. Saunders, and for the advice and assistance of our Advisory Committee, and the faithful and efficient services of our legal adviser, Mr. Thomas Skinker.

Thanks are due a member of our Board for a most excellent likeness of the late Bishop Robertson, and through her endeavors for a companion picture of Bishop Tuttle. Also to Mrs. Edom for a portrait of the late Henry Shaw.

The term of the former lease on house and lot, 718 Olive street, having expired, bids were invited for a new lease. The Sprague Delicatessen Company were the successful bidders, leasing the property from May 1, 1889, for twenty years, paying an annual rental of $3,234; binding themselves to put up a new and substantial building, to pay all taxes, to pay rent monthly in advance, and to keep the property insured for not less than $10,000 for the benefit of the Home.

In May, also, the lot on northwest corner of Compton and Franklin avenues was sold for the sum of $7,750; $1,250 in cash, balance secured by deed of trust on the property, and bearing six per cent interest.

In March, just passed, $5,000 was invested by order of the Board in St. Louis Merchants' Bridge bonds, bearing six per cent interest.

Christmas Eve brought Santa Claus to the little ones at the Home, and the large Christmas trees were bountifully laden with toys and presents. There were bright eyes and happy hearts, the employes sharing in the welcome gifts and general rejoicing. The Christmas service was conducted by Rev. B. E. Reed.

The annual Christmas dinner was attended by the Bishop, a few of the clergy, managers and friends of the Home. There was ample provision and plenty of good cheer; a greater number of visitors would have been gladly accommodated.

The children availed themselves of the river excursions provided by the Fresh Air Mission, with manifest enjoyment.

We have received during the year, thirty-seven children; four have been adopted; six indentured; two have run away; and thirty-nine have been returned to parents or friends. Present number of children in the Home, sixty-three. Three children from the New York Aid Society were cared for by the Home for two months.

We still retain Mrs. Markham's faithful services as Matron of the Home, and Miss Cuddy still presides over the school room, maintaining the good order and discipline which are so acceptable to the Board.

We regret to have to report the resignation of our former Secretary, who has served faithfully in that capacity for the past nine years, and who had also served previously as a member of the Board. We regret that other duties have compelled her to withdraw from her place among us.

We cordially welcome visitors to our Home, and invite an interest in its inmates and affairs.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. EDWIN HARRISON,

Secretary.

APPENDIX NO. 20 A.

Report of Convocation of Hannibal.

To the Rt. Rev. D. S. Tuttle, D. D., Bishop of Missouri:

As Dean of the Hannibal Convocation, I hereby respectfully submit a summary of our work for the Convention year past.

During the sessions of the Fiftieth Annual Convention of the Diocese a business meeting was held at which a secretary was elected and a Dean for the ensuing year nominated. Rev. E. W. Flower, of Brookfield, was elected Secretary, to succeed Rev. J. R. Harding, of Macon, who had removed from the Diocese; and the present Dean was nominated to succeed himself. The latter action was afterwards approved by yourself under the provisions of Canon VII., Section 2.

Our first regular meeting was held in St. Paul's Church, Palmyra, September 27–29. All the resident Clergy in the Convocation were present. Rev. E. W. Flower having previously resigned and moved from the Diocese, Rev. E. J. B. Williams, of Louisiana, was elected Secretary in his stead. This was the most successful and gratifying meeting hitherto held, and left its influence for good on the Parish.

Owing to the busy duties of the Advent season, and the difficulty in calling the Clergy together at that time, the December sessions were postponed.

The spring sessions were held in Trinity Church, Hannibal, February 9–11. All the Clergy were present except the Rector of St. Paul's, Palmyra, who was detained through illness. This was also a very satisfactory meeting in every particular, the several duties assigned the brethren being excellently performed.

It requires more than a causual thought to grasp the vast size of the Hannibal Convocation, and of the almost limitless opportunities there afforded for Church extension. It embraces an area larger than many of our Dioceses, with a population of possibly 225,000 souls, and with but a handful of Clergy to man the field. As yet, no aggressive Mission work has been done outside the Parishes in the Convocation. At the sessions held in St. James' Parish, Macon, October 1888, you specially requested that no new Mission work should be attempted that would increase your already over-burdened labors. Now that the Diocese is to be divided, however, we feel that some of these counties in which the Church services have possibly never been held, should be made at least occasional centers of Missionary activity, and we propose as much in the forthcoming year. As we will lose at least one Priest by division, and a portion of our territory, it will be needful for a reconstruction somewhat of our present Convocational limits at the present convention.

In conclusion, the Dean would bear witness to the unanimity of thought and work on the part of the brethren these two years past. Not one assigned duty has at any time shirked, and the Laity have been as ready to second the sessions in the several Parishes. At most of the meetings Lay Delegates have been present from the Parish in which the Convocation was held.

Very faithfully yours,

APPENDIX NO. 20 B.

Report of Convocation of Mexico.

To the Rt. Rev. D. S. Tuttle, S. T. D., Bishop of Missouri.

RT. REV. FATHER: In consequence of the vacancy in Calvary Church, Columbia, and of sickness in St. Mary's, Fayette, and of failure of any of the Parishes to send Delegates to St. Paul's, Mexico, I was unable to hold any meetings of the Convocation for the past year.

J. A. MATTHEWS, Dean.

APPENDIX NO. 20 C.

Report of Convocation of St. Louis.

To the Bishop of Missouri.

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR: I have made several efforts during the year to have a meeting of the Clergy of this Convocation, but without success. As the various causes leading to this bad failure are, I am sure, well known to yourself, I shall not name them. It is quite probable that the appointment of another in my place would be the means to bring about a different result, and I respectfully ask that you try its effect. Yours most sincerely,

FREDERICK B. SCHEETZ, Dean.

APPENDIX NO. 20 D.

Report of Convocation of Springfield.

Rt. Rev. D. S. Tuttle, D. D., Bishop of Missouri:

As Dean of the Convocation of Springfield I respectfully submit my report for the past Conventional year. May 15, 1889, I visited Neosho and found several persons members of and friendly to the Church. No service was held, but greatly encouraged to make another visit. June 18, I laid the corner-stone for the new Church of Grace Parish, Carthage. June 25, I visited Neosho again, and held a four days' mission. In the afternoons I gave instructions on Confirmation in a private house, and at night I preached, with after instructions, in the Presbyterian House, kindly loaned us by the Minister thereof. The result of this mission was, three children and two adults, baptized; six ladies and three gentlemen, confirmed, and St. John's Mission, Neosho, organized. July 16, visited Brother Todd at Lebanon, and found his steady, loving labors telling remarkably on the people. August 5, summoned to Joplin to look after matters concerning welfare of the Mission there. August 19, visited Neosho, called on the people, held service. August 20, visited Joplin, held service at night, baptized a young girl. August 21, visited Carthage. The Rector and wife were absent, but I found the new Church progressing. It is now completed, a beautiful structure, free from debt. December 10, visited Neosho; no service on account of a fair given by the ladies at the hour of service; could have been held if my visit had been announced. February 11, 1890, I had appointed a meeting of the Convocation for this date at Joplin, but owing to my serious illness was compelled to cancel the appointment. March 18, Sunday, I visited Joplin and held two services. The congregations were good, though my visit was unannounced. From causes unavoidable, there has not been a meeting of the Convocation during the past year. West Plains is now ministered to twice a month, by Dr. James, of Arkansas. Lebanon is still well served by Rev. R. Todd. Christ Church, Springfield, is supplied by the Rev. R. G. Noland, as Rector, who has vigorously taken hold of the work of this parish. Joplin and Neosho are not now supplied. Under many discouragements and disappointments these two Missions have bravely struggled to hold up their hands.

M. M. MOORE, Dean.

The seven confirmed at St. Andrew's Chapel, Sheffield, are not included in above return of Communicants. This work was started August, 1889. St. Mark's Church is built of wood—was built last fall and occupied for the first time November 24, 1889. St. Mark's Parish was organized April 11, 1889, and is therefore but little over a year old, and having pressing building bills to meet, has not been able to pay Diocesan obligations as promptly as it would like. Of the $15 to Diocesan Missions, $10 has not yet been paid, but will be before the Convention.

We have a new valuable lot across street from Church for a Rectory, seventy-five feet front, and the loving gift of good Mrs. Russell, before her death. It is proposed by the Vestry to remodel the Chapel this summer, giving a larger seating capacity, and to place it on a foundation; put in a chancel by extending, and give room for the choir and Vestry soon. It can be done for a few hundred dollars, and towards it we have made a fine start. We hope to be able soon to raise among friends and by our own earnest exertions, the balance needed. The work of the Church at Oak Hill surely looks encouraging. The report does not include the labors of our earnest women in behalf of the hospital, and in the Woman's Auxiliary and Rector's Aid Society.

The parish realizes it has done a wise thing in purchasing the large Chapel lot, the past summer. It was a brave effort, and the fruit of not a little self-sacrifice. In this worthy undertaking I feel special and loving mention is no more than due to Miss Rebekah Parker and also Wm. E. Kendall. S. T. B.

The large number of those herein reported as not being found in the parish, means one of two things:

1. A correct list was not given to Rev. Dr. Berkley when here, or
2. The removals from parish were not noted.

The former could not easily be gotten under the circumstances here existent, and accept the latter as the reason which amounts to the same thing.

The list herein is absolutely correct to date.

APPENDIX D.

Personal.

FROM REV. E. C. ALCORN, ST. LOUIS.

To the Rt. Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, D. D., LL. D., Bishop of Missouri.

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR:—Since my last annual report I have officiated as follows:

At St. Augustine's Mission, Benton, from May 20, 1889, to July 1, 1889; the services were Morning Prayer and Sermon, and on Whit Sunday, a celebration of the Holy Eucharist.

At Trinity Church, St. Louis, five Sundays in July and August (during the absence of the Rector).

At St. John's, St. Louis, three Sundays in September and October at the two morning services.

At Irondale, one Sunday (September 22d), when I said Morning and Evening Prayer, and preached at each service. At the morning service I baptized two children.

Since October 1st, I have generally attended the services at Trinity Church, St. Louis, and given the Rector such assistance as he desired, frequently celebrating the Holy Eucharist.

FROM REV. ED. F. BERKLEY, D. D., ST. LOUIS.

To the Rt. Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, D. D., LL. D., Bishop of Missouri.

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR:—I am still officiating in the Offices of the Church, whenever and wherever I am called.

Baptisms—4. Marriages—3. Funerals—3.

When the office is not administered in any Church, the record is made in the Parish Register of Christ Church Cathedral.

FROM REV. O. BULKLEY, BLACKBURN, MO.

To the Rt. Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, D. D., LL. D., Bishop of Missouri.

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR:—One marriage and one infant baptism is all I have to report.

FROM REV. ASHER P. CROUCH, KANSAS CITY, MO.

To the Rt. Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, D. D., LL. D., Bishop of Missouri.

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR:—I am sorry to be obliged to report that I have been unable to do any ministerial work or perform any official acts during the past year.

FROM REV. C. A. FOSTER, SEDALIA, MO.

To the Rt. Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, D. D., LL. D., Bishop of Missouri.

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR:—During the past year I have assisted the Rector of Calvary Church in the services every Sunday (excepting one), also on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, and Christmas Day. I shall not be able to attend the next Convention of the Diocese, nor the first of the New. I have not the means for travelling expenses. When the division of the Diocese takes place I shall be obliged to part with you as my Diocesan, with a heavy heart.

FROM REV. G. D. B. MILLER, DIOCESAN MISSIONARY, ST. LOUIS.

To the Rt. Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, D. D., LL. D., Bishop of Missouri.

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR:—The full record of my official work will appear in my report as Diocesan Missionary.

I give the summary: During the Conventional year, under your direction, in 51 different parishes and missions, I have held 183 services, delivered 140 sermons and addresses, and celebrated or assisted at the Holy Communion, 59 times.

REPORT OF REV. A. W. MANN, GENERAL MISSIONARY TO DEAF MUTES.

To the Rt. Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, D. D., LL. D., Bishop of Missouri.

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR:—During the year just closed, I held services for deaf mutes at Christ Church Cathedral, and St. John's Church, St. Louis, with good congregations. The Holy Communion has been celebrated at every morning service. The service at St. John's Church was "combined."

My assistant, the Rev. James H. Cloud, held services in St. Louis and Hannibal before his call East to fill a vacancy occasioned by the death of the Rev. Henry Winter Syle. I am once more alone in the vast Middle West, which has been my missionary ground for the past fifteen years. It contains a silent population of about 10,000, scattered here and there widely apart.

During this period, over 500 deaf mutes and their children have been received into the Church by Holy Baptism. The communicant list has grown till it shows nearly 400 names. Of the latter, fifteen belong to St. Louis.

The silent population of St. Louis is now over 300, and increasing. It will not be long before a Church, like St. Ann's, New York, or All Souls', Philadelphia, will be needed. It should have a Rectory, and building, with Guild, reading and lecture rooms. It should also have arrangements more suited to the eye than most of our Churches have.

Mr. Robert P. McGregor, principal of the St. Louis day school for deaf children, reports a number of Sunday afternoon services in the Chapel of the Cathedral, under authority of a Lay Reader's license from you. He reports good attendance at all services.

I have received hospitable entertainment at St. Luke's Hospital during my visits to St. Louis. This hospitality has been extended during the past fifteen years.

FROM REV. J. N. LEE, D. D., FORT MEADE, FLA.

To the Rt. Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, D. D., LL. D., Bishop of Missouri.

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR:—I resigned at Cameron, etc., September 1, 1889. Spent some three months at home in rest and some business matters, officiating meanwhile several times, and attending the meeting of the Convocation of St. Joseph, at St. Joseph, and reading a paper, December 19, 1889. About Christmas came to Florida, being put in charge, for the time, of Christ Church, Fort Meade, and St. Joseph's Mission, Barton.

Since January my report is: Services, 73; Holy Communion, 13; baptized, 6—infants, 2; adults, 4; confirmed, 5.
